YPSW 51th Annual Meeting

January 21-23, 2026

The Yuma Pacific Southwest Section is celebrating its 51st anniversary. Formed in 1975 by pioneers of the modern industrial hygiene profession—George Clayton, Frank Patty, Lester and Lewis Cralley, Ralph Allan, James Sterner, Herbert Walworth—YPSW has since included virtually all leaders in the IH profession from the private, academic, and government sectors. Ruth Patty served as the first YPSW President, with President-Elect Herbert Walworth, Secretary Florence Clayton, Treasurer Gertrude Cralley and Directors Frank Patty, George Clayton, and Lester Cralley.

Throughout our history, the membership of the YPSW Section has comprised many of the founders, developers, and leaders of the modern IH profession, including OSHA Directors, AIHA Presidents, Directors of Health and Safety for major corporations, and numerous others who have significantly advanced the science and art of industrial hygiene.

Below is the membership roster as of April 1976.

- Leonard Breen, Occupational Health Section, State of California, San Diego, CA
- Seymour Calvert, PhD, President, Air Pollution Technology, San Diego, CA
- George and Florence Clayton, President, Clayton and Associates, Fallbrook, CA
- Lester and Gertrude Cralley, PhD, Fallbrook, CA
- Lewis and Eva Cralley, PhD, Fallbrook, CA
- David Elgas, President, American Technical Lab, San Diego, CA
- Carl Jensen, Escondido, CA
- Frank and Ruth Patty, Yuma, AZ
- James and Patricia Sterner, MD, Laguna Hills, CA
- Herbert Walworth, Lake San Marcos, CA

The first YPSW meeting was held at La Costa Hotel and Spa, Carlsbad, CA on March 4, 1976. The meeting was publicized in The Blade Tribune, Fallbrook Enterprise, and The Evening Tribune (San Diego). The Banquet speaker was Evan Campbell, the incoming AIHA President (1976).

We take pride in the section's unique membership and the legacy of opportunities we provide to our members and the profession. Our heritage and our esteemed membership roster over the past 51 years are sources of great pride.
